Old Business:

a. Discussion on Zoning Regulations - Gateway Overlay Zones: A general discussion was held regarding the process for a ‘design review’ for the overlay zones of the Western and Northern corridors, for a regulation process for new commercial buildings or an existing building to be modified. Commission members requested that the Land Use Inspector contact an outside source for recommendations.

Land Use Inspector’s Report :

42 Summit Road: Land Use Inspector, Tammy DeLoia advised that she had received a response to her inquiry of the number of non-related people living at this residence. Both the home owners and Dungarvin Connecticut, LLC, a Continuous Residential Support Program (CRS) advised that there are two non-related people in residence, with support staff. The resident or a family member/guardian, signs a lease for the people to live there; staff from the CRS are in attendance for support. T. DeLoia also stated that the property lease will be up in September and the property owners advised that they will consider if the lease will be renewed.

176 Straitsville Road: T. DeLoia stated that she had received a response to her letter from Mr. Chris Caporaso regarding the sign on their property reading “Bodhichitta”. Mr. Caporaso stated that both he and his wife practiced Buddhism; the word “Bodhichitta” is a concept for “peace and joy”. Mr. Caporaso’s request was to respect their practice of Buddhism. Motion made by A. Havican, seconded by G. Ploski to place the Land Use Inspector’s Report on file. Unanimous.

Public Participation: None

Adjournment: Motion made by A. Havican, seconded by K. Kemp to adjourn the meeting. Unanimous. The meeting adjourned @ 8:17 p.m.
