Intended Population: Public schools and students

Eligibility: A State must distribute not less than 90 percent of its total ARP ESSER allocation to LEAs (including charter schools) in the State to help meet a wide range of needs arising from the coronavirus pandemic, including reopening schools safely, sustaining their safe operation, and addressing students' social, emotional, mental health, and academic needs resulting from the pandemic. The State must allocate these funds to LEAs based on funds received under Title I, Part A of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965 (ESEA) in FY- 2020. (Source: US Department of Education).

However, unlike prior rounds of ESSER funding, there are specific requirements for the SEA funds:

- At least 1% of the state's total allocation must be reserved by the state agency and spent on providing evidence-based comprehensive afterschool programs
- Not more than 0.5% of the state's total allocation may be reserved for state education agency administrative costs
- Remainder to be used "for emergency needs as determined by the state educational agency to address issues responding to coronavirus" and grants/contracts may be used

Distribution Date: The funding may be used for pre-award costs dating back to March 13, 2020, when the national emergency was declared. Funds are available for obligation by SEAs and subrecipients through September 30, 2023. With respect to making local educational agency (LEA) subgrants (90% of the total ARP ESSER allocation), the SEA must allocate ARP ESSER funds in an expedited and timely manner and, to the extent practicable, not later than 60 days after the SEA receives those funds. An SEA must award ARP ESSER funds not allocated to LEAs within one year of the date the SEA receives those funds.

Amount: $15.6 million, of which up to $200,000 may be used by SDE for administration adjustments under certain circumstances. The distribution formula is the same as in CRRSAA; therefore, a small portion of funds will be allocated to institutions that provided only distance learning pre-coronavirus and for these institutions, the funds must be entirely distributed as student grants. Other ARP distributions through this fund are programmatic ($3 billion, 7.5%), funds to private for-profit institutions which may use the allocation only on student grants ($395.8 million, 1%), and funds for institutions with the greatest coronavirus need ($197.9 million, 0.5%).

Distribution Date: May 2021 for institutions that received prior round(s) of HEERF funding. The grant application was available to institutions that did not previously receive HEERF funds.

Amount: Total funding under ARP to all Connecticut institutions, announced to date, is $377.1 million. This figure includes student grant funds.

Of the Connecticut total, $117.6 million is available to the community colleges, $77.3 million to the four Connecticut State Universities, $57.3 million to the University of Connecticut, and $477,408 to Charter Oak State College. Across the constituent units, $128.5 million is designated for institutional use while $124.3 million must be distributed to students as emergency grants. Connecticut nonprofit colleges and universities have been allocated $115.8 million in total, while students at for-profit institutions may receive $8.6 million.

Some of the constituent units have announced how the student grant portion of ARP-HEERF funds will be distributed. The community colleges are planning to distribute multiple rounds of funding, with each award either $350 (students with an Expected Family Contribution (EFC) to their education of less than $11,152) or $100. For-credit students will receive three rounds of awards and noncredit, two. Additionally, all pandemic-impacted students are receiving awards in August 2021.

UConn distributed grants of $500, $1,000, or nothing (depending on whether the student is an undergraduate and on EFC) in summer 2021 to students who were enrolled in spring 2021, did not graduate, and had filed a financial aid form for 2021-22. UConn anticipates fall and spring rounds of funding at similar levels and with similar distribution methods, as well.

Additionally, UConn is making available three rounds of $500 emergency grants upon application.

Prior Funding: The constituent units received approximately $222.3 million in HEERF funding in total under the CARES Act and CRRSAA. Of the total, $76.4 million was designated for student grant funds and $145.9 million was available for institutional use.
